

Biography

KAVALKOU Valery,
Deputy Minister of Labour and Social Protection,
Belarus

Date of birth	– 11 May 1969
Place of birth	– Minsk, Belarus
Nationality	– Belarusian
Education	– Higher Education
2001	– Belarusian Institute of Law, specialty “Law”, qualification “Lawyer”
2007	– Academy of Management under the President of the Republic of Belarus, specialty "State management of the social sector"

WORK EXPERIENCE

Works in the system of social protection of the population since 1987.

Since 2012, he holds the position of Deputy Minister of Labour and Social Protection of the Republic of Belarus. He oversees the development and implementation of the main directions of gender, demographic and family policy, issues of pensions, and coordinates activities to ensure the achievement of Sustainable Development Goals in the framework of the Ministry’s competence.

He is a member of the Council for Sustainable Development (deliberative and advisory body on the implementation and monitoring of the achievement by the Republic of Belarus of the Sustainable Development Goals based on a system of national indicators), and is head of the sectoral working group covering the social sector.