

Ms. Baigalmaa Gochoosuren is the Deputy Chief of Staff to the President of Mongolia. She is in charge of overseeing the Office of the President's policy implementation, financial management, and day-to-day operations. Previously, Ms. Baigalmaa has served as the Deputy Minister of Construction and Urban Development and led the policy initiatives to increase affordable housing and decrease centralization of Ulaanbaatar City. In addition to her official role, she is active in promoting women's political participation through the Mongolian Democratic Women's Union. Ms. Baigalmaa holds an LLB in international law and a Master's degree in public administration. She is married with a son.