

Richard G. Tarasofsky is a Canadian lawyer and diplomat, currently serving as Deputy Director in the Eastern Europe and Eurasia Division at Global Affairs Canada. From 2013-2017, he was a Senior Trade Commissioner at the Canadian Embassy to Germany. From 2009-2013, he was a Deputy Director of the Oceans and Environmental Law Division at Global Affairs Canada. From 2007 – 2009, Mr. Tarasofsky was a counsel with the Government of Canada's Trade Law Bureau.

Prior to joining the Canadian public service, Mr. Tarasofsky directed the Energy, Environment and Development Programme at Chatham House in London, United Kingdom (2004-2007). From 1998-2004, Mr. Tarasofsky was in private practice in Berlin, Germany, specialising in international law and policy relating to sustainable development. From 1993 – 1998, Mr. Tarasofsky was a Legal Officer at the Environmental Law Centre of the International Union of Conservation of Nature (IUCN) in Bonn, Germany.

Mr. Tarasofsky holds degrees from McGill University in Montreal, Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto, and the London School of Economics and Political Science.